HOME TOUR A GREAT SUCCESS

Over 800 people enjoyed a beautiful spring day and viewed ten wonderful Madrona homes during the recent home tour. Audrey Seale, Home Tour Chair, extends her personal gratitude to the home owners, house captains, and all the volunteers who helped make the day a success. Final dollar totals are not quite ready yet but all indications are that this tour is the most successful in recent years. Audrey has already agreed to chair next year's tour and several homes are already committed. A special thanks to Audrey for the vision and countless hours which lead to a great tour.

Anya Jane Roberts-Toney and Toshio Kurose had a lemonade stand during the Home Tour and donated half of their proceeds to the Madrona Newsletter. They are two enterprising and community conscious 5 year olds.

NEWSLETTER ASSISTANCE NEEDED

Shirley Solomon, the editor of the Madrona Newsletter, has decided to concentrate her energies on establishing an urban wildlife program for Madrona which may become a pilot program for the rest of the city. Shirley has helped to make the Madrona newsletter one of the best neighborhood newsletters in the city and all Madrona can be proud of her efforts. The newsletter is published eight times each year. Anyone interested in helping be the "Voice of Madrona" is welcome to call Rick Lockard at 324-8461.

AL LARKINS PLAQUE PROGRESS

Frances Carr reports that the Parks Department has, at long last, approved the placing of a plaque in Al Larkins Park. Francis is getting bids for the plaque and welcomes any contributions or assistance from Madrona residents. Call Frances at 323-0088.

BUSINESS NEWS

Anyone driving, walking, or biking past Madrona Beach these days would have a hard time ignoring the happy aroma of barbeque floating on the breeze. Floyd Brown and Ezie Johnson have been running the Smokey Point Bar-B-Que since April 1988 and they have a going concern, with pork and beef ribs, chicken, homemade potato salad and sweet potato pie. John Hinterberger of the Seattle Times has included them on his list of preferred barbeque meccas and you probably will too. Call them at 329-2898 or just stop by and try their delicious offerings.

Mr. A.D. Moore, who runs the Doll House Cafe, is now also managing the new laundromat at 1408-34th Ave. There are 17 new double load washers and one 50 pound washer along with 8-thirty pound dryers. The laundromat is open from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., every day of the week.

Donations to the Nora Wood Environmental and Cultural Education Trust Fund are still being accepted. Write your check to the fund and mail in care of Madrona Elementary, 1121-33rd Ave.

In addition to the fund, Madrona Elementary is working with the Community Council to develop an outdoor space near the entrance to the school which would include several benches and plantings in Nora's name. Anyone interested in helping design, build, or plant this space are welcome to call Rick Lockard at 324-8461.
